

Library Channel Quarterly Report

1st Quarter FY 2010

July - September 2009

The first quarter of the fiscal year encompasses both two of the busiest and one of the slowest months for productions at ICPL. In the summer, Library programming focuses on children and the Summer Reading Program, which wraps up in July. August is our down time when we gear up for the beginning of the fall Adult Programs that start in September.

Special Events on The Library Channel:

- Four Summer Reading Program events for grades K-6 in July.
- An author visit with Children’s author Sarah Prineas on July 25.
- Psalms - Jose Limon's Masterpiece with the UI Dance Department Sept 3.
- ICCSD School Board Candidate forum sponsored by Iowa City Education Association Sept 3 (produced by CTS)
- Four International Author programs cosponsored with the UI International Writing Program in September.
- Johnson County AARP Senior Housing Summit sponsored by Johnson County AARP Sept 8 (produced by CTS)
- ECO Iowa City Vermi-Composting event Sept 17.
- Now in Palestine, with the People for Justice in Palestine Sept 22 (produced by CTS)
- Global Climate Change – What are we doing locally? With the Sierra Club Sept 23 (produced by CTS)
- ICPL Intellectual Freedom Festival Brownbag Lunch: Public Libraries, Budget Cuts and Intellectual Freedom on Sept 30.
